A Note from Your Pastor.....

My Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This weekend, through the story in the Gospel, Jesus teaches us very interesting lessons: 1. how to distinguish the difference between word and action, and 2. the necessary changes required in our minds and hearts. It is a very interesting story. And if I can choose a title for today's Gospel I would call it "The Story of Actions Speak Louder than Words".

Now I would like to invite you, together with me, to briefly reflect on this story. The father in Jesus' story asks his two sons to go and work in the vineyard. The first son says NO to his father but later he changes his mind and goes to work. At the beginning, when he responds "no", he chooses to go his own way but then he changes his mind and takes his father's way. He earns the pleasure of his father.

The second one immediately says YES. He promises that he will go and work in his father's vineyard. But he doesn't keep his word. He doesn't go.

We can learn from both. The second one who says "yes" but doesn't go is meant to act as a warning to us. Think about this: we profess ourselves as Christians, but sometimes outsiders accuse us of being hypocrites because our actions do not bear witness to the faith that we profess with our lips. Am I right?

We also can learn a very good lesson from the first son. To change our mind is generally regarded as a fault and a weakness. Therefore, if we are open and humble to acknowledge our own mistakes, we can find the courage to put it right. This son, because finally he obeys his father, is better than the second one. He does the will of his father.

We have freedom to say YES or NO to God (and to one another as well), but this means we are responsible for our own actions. Sometimes we abuse our freedom, but God in His goodness calls us to repentance. And this is the second point that I would like to share with you.

What do I learn from the Gospel today? The parable teaches us that promise can never take the place of performance, and fine words can never be a substitute for fine deeds. There are two ways of saying this:

- It is said that a person is as good as his word. If that is so, then the question I must ask myself is how good are my words?
- Also, it is said that a person is not as good as his word. So if that is so, then the question I must ask myself is how bad are my actions?

The parable of the two sons invites us to think about the need to repent. In this parable, repentance begins with the openness to listen to the word of God, and that leads to change. Changing means a person denounces their former way of life to adopt a new way, and it is God's way. This change will restore broken relationships, and once again allow us to become God's children, and to see others in a positive light.

Let us continue to reflect on the parable of the two sons this week.

I wish all of you a wonderful weekend and enjoy the first days of fall with God's abundant blessings. Love you all.

Fr. Louis Nguyen

Bringing Home the Word

Say Yes and Go Out

By Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

We can really relate to God when he repeats the people's blame and accusations at him for not being fair. In moments of suffering or injustice, it's easy to pass judgment and blame it all on God. It's especially difficult when innocent and good people (ourselves included) suffer. We're tempted to ask, "Aren't you supposed to treat your friends better?"

We only need to look at Marco Palmezzano's painting Christ Bearing the Cross to reconsider our complaints. How have we treated God?

Jesus was and is the most innocent of souls; no other being was or is as good as Jesus. No one was asked to suffer like him, and he suffered not to gain for himself but to pay our debt. Relating it to today's Gospel lesson, Jesus is the son who, when asked to work in his Father's vineyard, promptly said "yes" and went. Always obedient, always docile, always loving.

Watching Jesus, we hear the echo of St. Paul's letter. Jesus humbly regarded his brothers and sisters as more than himself and was willing to go to the cross and win them back for the Father. Keep in mind, those siblings had destroyed family unity, squandered away their inheritance, sold their birthright, sold him into slavery with their sin, and very often refused his love. Yet "God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8).

God knows his merciful justice well and can kindly and provokingly ask in Ezekiel 18:25, "Is it my way that is unfair? Are not your ways unfair?"

Your St. Gerard Parish COVID-19 Questions Answered

On March 18, 2020, Archbishop Donald Bolen, in keeping with the Code of Canon Law no. 87, granted to all the Catholic faithful dispensation from their Sunday obligation. This is still in effect.

What does this mean? As Roman Catholics, we have an obligation to attend Sunday Mass. Until further notice, Archbishop Don has granted an exemption from this obligation. For those who are unable or choose not to attend Sunday Mass at this time, you do not have to. Other ways to participate in Sunday Mass is to watch it on television or watch the YouTube Mass online, courtesy of Resurrection Parish & Christ the King Parish (Regina) and the Archdiocese of Regina.

What happens if someone at Mass develops COVID-19? All parishioners who have pre-registered will be contacted.

Why do I need to wear a mask? All those who attend both daily and Saturday/Sunday Masses are asked to wear a mask. The parish has a small supply of fabric masks for those who do not have one. Please remember to put your mask on before exiting your vehicle prior to entering the church.

Why do I need to register each time when I would like to attend Mass? We are blessed at St. Gerard's to have a large parish family! In order to provide all parishioners with an equal opportunity to attend Sunday Mass, it is necessary to register each week.

Why can't I sit in my usual place? In order to accommodate as many singles, couples, and families as possible, it is necessary to assign seat numbers so that all are able to celebrate safely.

\*Carefully attending [to the directives] is the best way to ensure that we won't contribute to the spreading of the virus, and the most helpful step we can take in convincing government and health officials that opening our churches to larger numbers is a safe and responsible thing to do.***

YOUTH NEWS AND INFORMATION

“Two Children and Their Opposite Responses”

This Week...

Paul reminds us that Jesus humbled himself and followed the way of God. We are to do the same. If we say we are believers, then we must not stray and do wicked things. If we are wicked, then we must change our ways and become believers. Isaiah and Jesus both point out that being called virtuous believers is not enough. We will be judged on what we actually do.

For Your Reflection

These are fierce words that Jesus gives us: that tax collectors and prostitutes are entering heaven in greater numbers than are priests and appointed elders! But Jesus is talking about priests and elders who are like the child who outwardly says, “Yes!” to God, yet doesn't really do God's work. The tax collectors and prostitutes are like the child who outwardly says, “No!” to God, yet does the best he or she can in any situation.

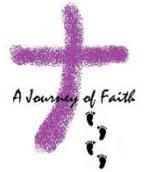

- At home, which child are you more like? Are you more likely to say you'll do something, and then not do it? Or are you more likely to talk back to your parents, but later do what they ask anyway? Or do you do both? Explain your answer and give some examples.
- Do you respond at school in the same way as you do at home, or differently?
- How are you at work? Are you more likely to say yes and not do the task, or are you more likely to say no but then do the work anyway?
- What might Jesus be saying to you with this parable?

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) is an incredible journey of discovery, the discovery of God's love in Jesus. If you or someone you know is interested in exploring the friendship and saving grace of Jesus Christ, we invite you to join us in the RCIA journey. It is a warm, welcoming experience that introduces the Christian faith in our Roman Catholic tradition. We explore topics such as Holy Scripture, the Sacraments, Church history and the core beliefs of the Church. Anyone who has taken this "leap of faith" has found it to be a life-altering experience.

The RCIA process is intended for those who are non-baptized. There are several rites and stages that are part of the process to prepare adults for Baptism and to receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil.

Rite of Reception of Baptized Christians into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church. If you have been baptized in another Christian tradition, the Catholic Church respects that baptism. Baptism is the sacrament of our rebirth in Christ and our immersion into His saving death and Resurrection. It can never be repeated. Reception into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church happens after a period of preparation through catechesis, prayer and worship, and an introduction to Catholic life, values, and mission.

Adults who have been baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received the Sacrament of Confirmation can prepare for reception of this sacrament through a period of catechesis and prayer.

If you are interested in this journey of faith, please contact Fr. Louis at 306.782.2449 or 306.782.0323.

And to all our friends in St. Gerard's parish, we remind you that we all have a responsibility to share our faith and bring others to Christ. If you know of a family member, friend, co-worker or fellow student who is searching for a deeper meaning in their life, let them know about RCIA.

OFFERING A MASS

The offering of a Mass in the name of a deceased family member or friend is one of the greatest ways to keep our beloved dead in our living memory. At each celebration of the Mass, the great prayer of sacrifice is made complete as Jesus' life, death and resurrection is offered to God the Father. When we offer a Mass for a particular person, we ask that in a special way the individual be remembered by the priest who offers up the great sacrifice on behalf of the whole community of faith. In a very real and active way, the life, death and resurrection of the person remembered becomes present and is offered up with Jesus. Each time we offer up a Mass for someone, living or dead, we celebrate the greatest gift of our faith – the gift of Everlasting Life in Christ.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is available daily at the EADM Centre Chapel at 484 Hamilton St. Regina. Hours: 10:00 am to 8:00 pm on Monday through Thursday.
