The Archdiocese Of Regina Lay Formation Program

"I'd love to take the course, but I want to wait until; my kids are grown, I can slow down at work, I'm retired..." The sad truth is, nearly 75% of young people, even those raised in religious homes, will leave the Church by the time they are 25 - well before many of us retire! Some of the most common reasons given for leaving one's faith behind include; perceived conflicts between faith and science, Christians behaving badly, a lack of evidence for the existence of God and difficulties with some of the Church's teachings. Our sons and daughters need mentors who are "well-trained and animated by a sincere faith...whose life has been touched by the personal and merciful love of Jesus Christ" (Pope Francis).

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information or to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 Ext 211 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward." Mark 9:41

Does your life reflect the life of Jesus? Remember, we were made in His image. We tend to forget this. When others see you, do they see the face of Jesus? When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them?

The Archdiocese of Regina is proud to sponsor: MINO-MAAWANJ'IITIWAG: COMING TOGETHER IN A GOOD WAY

Rooted in Faith; "For where two or three gathers in my name, there am I with them". – Matthew 18:20

Mino-maawanji'itiwag is Saulteaux for "coming together in a good way." This November we will gather for a unique opportunity to learn, connect, and grow, reconciling the past and journeying towards Contextualized Ministry. Join Indigenous Jesus followers and people ministering in an Indigenous context.

Have You Wondered?

- How can a non-Indigenous person mentor an Indigenous person?
- What does Indigenous leadership look like?
- Why are Indigenous peoples marginalized in similar ways across the globe?
- Is the Indigenous drum, smudging, or other traditional practices allowable in the Christian Context?
- Why can't "they" get over it?

Purpose:

An opportunity to Come Together with Indigenous and non-Indigenous believers. Hearing from those who have journeyed before us, offering their perspectives on walking the Jesus Way, while being both Indigenous and Christian.

This gathering is an opportunity to spend two days with Indigenous leaders who have journeyed with these and other questions. Let's learn how to come together in a good way!

If you have any questions please contact Tashia Toupin Social Justice Coordinator at the Archdiocese at: 306-352-1651 ext. 222 or by email: ttoupin@archregina.sk.ca
